Can a commercial solar system be financed?

A commercial solar customer can choose to purchase their PV system through a loan or outright (cash). In these cases, the tax benefits go to the customer. In addition to these options, there are financing options where ownership of the PV system is held by someone other than the user of the solar energy for a period of time.

How can a commercial solar project be financed?

Commercial solar projects can be financed through several methods, including: solar power purchase agreements (PPAs), solar leases, energy services agreements, tax equity financing structures such as sale leasebacks and partnership flips, and cash or loan purchases of the system.

What are the different types of commercial solar financing?

Leases and PPAs (Power Purchase Agreements) are common ways of financing commercial solar properties. Both share similarities, as in the PV system being owned by a third-party financier, and the deals can be structured with no upfront payment.

Are asset-backed loans a good option for commercial solar customers?

An asset-backed loan can be a good option for some commercial solar customers, according to Chase. For instance, if a commercial solar customer is a building owner with a long-standing business but without investment-grade credit, they may still qualify for a loan, but with a high interest rate.

Does Chase provide commercial solar financing?

Chase has worked with many commercial clients to help them navigate the commercial solar financing process.
